CREATIVE STORYTELLING WITH OH CARDS

Organised and Presented by

In Collaboration with

The genre of associative cards known as the 'OH cards' includes decks that have been created specifically for storytelling as well as other interchangeable decks that work wonderfully too. There are now numerous sets of which the 1001, SAGA, MYTHOS and SHEN HUA lend themselves well for storytelling purposes. The cards are flexible, easy-to-use tools to generate creative and interesting stories within the classroom and outside. Whether the focus is on improving fluency, working with plot or character, or just having fun, they are invaluable for anyone working with children and literacy.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: This 3-hour session is meant specifically for teachers and other educators who can use the cards in fun and creative activities for language learning.
